

I support new mediums such as XM and Sirrus satellite radio. My personal choice was XM, however future technology might lead me in different ways. Satellite technology is doing now for my car radio what it did for my television 25 years ago. Please encourage these new technologies - don't limit them as they seek to find their market.

Tom McKinnis